4. From Dr. Karen R. Jackson, Director of Human Resources, discussion regarding compliance with Civil Service Commission Rules.

Appearances: Dr. Karen R. Jackson

Dr. Jackson explained that as a result of the approved budget, Human Resources has been reduced from 32 to 13 people, with four staff in Employment & Staffing who are processing applications in compliance with Civil Service Rules. The HR Managers and Coordinators are back in the field as part of their respective departments and assist with the processing of applications. Processes are automated through Ceridian. HR is working with the departments so that they understand how things are done in HR. A HR flow chart, as well as additional information, will be presented at the September meeting.

Since she has resigned from Milwaukee County, Dr. Jackson indicated that it has been a pleasure working with the Civil Service Commissioners. She is going back to work at MPS and looking forward to the challenge.

Meeting adjourned at 2:55 pm.

Approved by:

Karen R. Jackson, Ph.D.
Secretary of the Civil Service Commission
